Dear Sourav Ghosh,

Your resignation has been submitted successfully on November 12, 2025.

Your requested release date has been noted. However, your actual release date will be updated by your HR partner.

You will find attached a set of clearance guidelines and documents needed to complete the exit formalities. Given below are some quick tips for your notice period:

- Time management tasks: Check and update your leave/attendance/efforts as soon as possible. You will not be able to update/cancel/modify timesheets or leave on the system from 3 calendar days before your relieving date. Tickets or email requests regarding such modifications will not be accepted. If you foresee any overtime during the last seven calendar days, request your manager to share the details with the time and attendance team.
- Data security and transfer: Official data/information/files that you have access to will continue to be governed by the same data security policy requirements during your notice period. Please ensure that your personal information is transferred to yourself 15 days prior to your last working day. For more details, refer to the Data Sharing Guidelines included in the "No Dues" document.
- Confidentiality: We also want to remind you of your continuing confidentiality obligations as an employee with respect to all Wipro policies including the Code of Business Conduct and Information Security.

If you need clarification or face technical difficulties, reach out to your HR partner SONU KUMAR, sonu.kumar7@wipro.com or raise a ticket at WiServe > Report an Issue > GPO (Global People Operations > Select Classification as "Separation/Exit related queries".
